

EDINBURGH CINE AND VIDEO SOCIETY PRESENTS...

OPEN NIGHT

4th March 2010 at 7:30pm, 23a Fettes Row, Edinburgh

Edinburgh Cine and Video Society are a group of keen, amateur film makers. We welcome all film makers, from the absolute beginner to seasoned experts. Our goal is to work together and benefit from each others skills, experience and creativity. Regular Meetings are held in our clubrooms at 23a Fettes Row.

If you are interested in making films, want advice on using your camcorder, or would just like to find out more about our society, please drop in to our open night on Thursday March 4th at any time between 7:30pm and 10:30pm!

Established in 1936, ECVS has a long history of film making. We have a range of facilities, a 56-seat cinema, a blue-screen room for special effects, specialised lighting, cine-to-video transfer facilities, etc.

At our drop-in Open Night on Thursday 4th March we will be showcasing our facilities and showing some excerpts from our films. We'll also have a live bluescreen demonstration, and a cine-to-video transfer demonstration.

Members will be available to answer any questions you may have on the society, its history, or any aspect of amateur film making.

Entry to our Open Night is completely free to all members of the public, please feel free to drop in and see what ECVS is all about!
